

IFAF FUN CAPTIONS 3.... by Andrew Wayland

(Note: - again no offence intended!)

NA LAOCH DALL 2011

How did I get lumbered with
this lot today,
Mary Poppins, and these two?

See that arrow, well it's NOT mine, neither is this, or this one either!

Have no idea where my one landed!

MAYO 2006 (An extract by Andrew from Dunbrody Newsletter issue 68, Sept 2006)

LOUGHCREW 2013

LITTLEWOOD 2011

Gardening hour with Peter...

And when revitalising the top soil, one has to take care whilst working on the delicate root system.

WILLOWHILL 2011

Lovely day for a stroll in the woods eh everyone?

Can't hear a word he's saying over the sound of this rain and squelching feet...

AOS DANA 2012

Don't say it, Don't even think it... OK!

BLACK DOG 2012

No pressure Conrad,.. but all us Longbow archers have already hit it!

UKIFAC 2011 DUNBRODY

Oh yes she is lovely, in great shape, a very VERY fine specimen indeed!

I fully agree, a real beauty, ... her condition is exquisite,- not every day you see a Grey Headed Wagtail in these parts.

MAYO 2011

I'm not certain but I think that's the target in amongst those branches there...

Due to the positive feedback, I have added this third installment of captions this week. Below is the first in a series of cartoons, this one is based on actually events... Enjoy. Coming soon: The next in a series of cartoons & the next club special feature Contributions from archers welcome... contact me on andcalum@googlemail.com Andrew.

This recently happened at Loughcrew...
